Features and benefits

▪ The small, compact, external, and multi-protocol USB print server is compatible with virtually all major printers using a USB interface.

▪ Network your printer with ease! The silex Quick Setup wizard easily walks you through the configuration process in just a few minutes.
It also includes an Admin manager utility that allows network administrators to manage multiple devices over the network.

▪ HP support with JetAdmin/Web JetAdmin - You can manage the SX-300U from your HP Jet Admin/Web JetAdmin utility.
It also supports TCP/IP#9100 port and Direct IPX print.

▪ IP Filtering, the network security control technology prevents unauthorized access to network printers utilizing specific IP addresses or a range of IP addresses configured via the embedded web server accessed by using a common web browser.

IP Filtering

Automatic e-mail printing

▪ Automatic e-mail printing - The SX-300U can retrieve e-mail for up to four (4) designated e-mail addresses from the user's e-mail server and then print the e-mails automatically without a PC.
The SX-300U can print all e-mails or the user can apply keyword filters to specify the e-mails to be printed. It also can send an e-mail message to you when any error occurs with the printer.

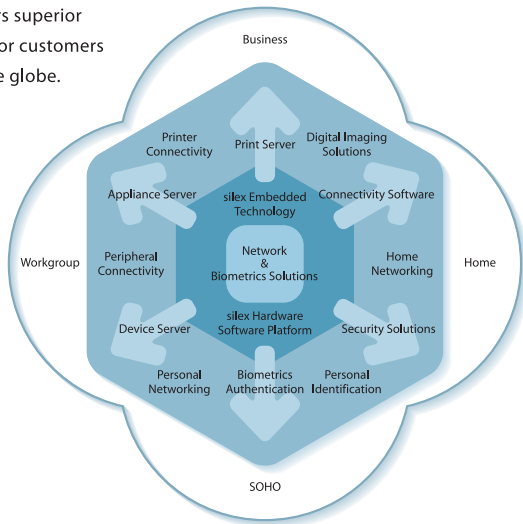

▪ Automatic network printing service discovery for Macintosh users - The SX-300U allows you to automatically discover and connect to a printer over the network in a Mac OS X environment. It eliminates the need to manually configure an IP address or network settings for a printer.
